Dedication

We respectively dedicate this 18th volume of the Arkansas State College Indian to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Vernon Warr.

They have devoted their lives to the welfare of this College and have served the institution faithfully and well these many years. Always loved by the students, they have long been affectionately known as "Mother and Dad" Warr to all their "children," we, the graduates and undergraduates of Arkansas State College.

ARKANSAS STATE STARTED IN 1909 BY LEGISLATURE

Intensive Building Program Begun As College Attains Senior Ranking

"Little Rock, Ark., April, 1909—After a stormy session in both houses, Act 100, introduced by the Hon. J. J. Bellamy, was passed by the Arkansas State Legislature and was signed by Governor John W. Donaghey. The passage of this bill clears the way for the creation of four district agricultural schools to be established in the state."

With this short news story, the newspapers of Arkansas brought to the people of the state the account of the passage of the bill that was to build for them an educational system. To the people of Northeastern Arkansas it meant the founding of the State Agricultural School of Jonesboro which developed later into the State Agricultural and Mechanical College, and still later it became known, as it is today, as Arkansas State College.

However, the passage of this now famous bill did not mean that the fight for education in Arkansas was ended. Instead it had just begun, and the foundation upon which Arkansas State College has been built was wrought through only the hardest kind of fight, on the part of the founders and developers, against enemies that cropped up all through the school's growth.

Anxious to get the institution started, Mr. V. C. Kays, the first and only president the College has had, came to Jonesboro early in 1910; and with the aid of the Board of Trustees, appointed by the governor, opened the school for business in rooms above the old T. J. Ellis Jewelry Company. In the fall of 1911 the first administration building and two dormitories, Lewis and Barnhart Halls, both of which are still standing on the campus, were completed; and the school moved into its own buildings.

In 1923 the State Legislature changed the name of the institution from the State Agricultural School of Jonesboro to Arkansas State Agricultural and Mechanical College. However it was not until 1927 that a Doctor of Philosophy joined the faculty in the person of Dr. Newton H. Brown. Finally recognition came to the school from the North Central Association as a two year college in 1929. One year later, the College offered its first four year courses, and in the spring of 1931 the first graduates completed their work.

On January 17, 1931, tragedy struck at the growing College when the Administration Building, which had been in use since 1911, burned. However, this great fire resulted in the building campaign that brought R. E. Lee Wilson Hall, the present Administration Building, to the campus in 1932. This was followed with the building of two new dormitories, the Women's Residence Hall and W. S. Danner Hall, in 1934, the Commons Building in 1936, the Military and Science Buildings in 1938, and the Engineering Building in 1938-39. At the present time a new $300,000 Hangar and Physical Education Building is being erected on the campus.

Arkansas State A. and M. College was recognized as a degree granting institution by the North Central Association in 1933; and in the spring of this same year, the name of the College was changed to Arkansas State College which it still bears. The members of the Board of Trustees at the time of recognition as a four year college, and who were very instrumental in bringing it about were R. Whitaker, pres., Maurice B. Block, R. E. Lee Wilson, W. L. Banks, and Fearle Davis.

Arkansas State College added an R. O. T. C. unit to its curriculum in 1936, and all male students were required to take two years of military training. After completing his first two years in the course, the student is given a chance to continue the work in order to be commissioned in the Reserve Officer's Corps at the end of his four years of study.

Governor Bailey appointed Judge J. C. Johnston, West Memphis civic leader, and Will Mack, Jonesboro theatre man, to serve on the Board of Trustees in the places of Mr. Wilson and Mr. Whitaker, both deceased. With the members that were serving when Arkansas State became a four year College, these two men are still directing the affairs of the School. It is upon the shoulders of this board, President V. C. Kays, and the rest of the Administration that the responsibilities for the care and well being of the faculty, students, and the physical plant of the College rests. To the indomitable spirit of the small group of people, who have led Arkansas State through many hard years, that the people of Northeastern Arkansas owe their thanks for the many advantages given them through the education received at this Institution.

PRESIDENT V. C. KAYS

WE MUST KEEP AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE CLEAR

Young People Today Find That They Are The Preservers Of Democracy

As you and I go about our tasks each day, we realize that rapid changes are taking place in our American way of life. Few of us fully appreciate, however, the blessings which we in this free country enjoy. It is difficult for us to interpret and evaluate the constantly changing relationships in the world today.

During the few years of our association together in college, we have tried to inculcate the ideals of democracy which will prepare us to appraise the passing movements of humanity and to protect our American institutions against the abuses of forces and misdirected authority.

Faith in the integrity and the strength of the individual will through unity of high purpose furnish the necessary defenses for our democratic way of life.

May we all do our part in the protection of democracy and the defense of our country in this time of trial through level-headed thinking and constructive action to the end that the worthwhile values of our democratic processes may be perpetuated. May you be happy and successful as you proceed with life's tasks and responsibilities.

DEAN SHOWALTER

Dr. D. F. Showalter has ably filled the position of Dean of the Faculty for the last four years. During that time he has been of decided worth to the College in attending to the details of administration.

Besides his duties as Dean, he makes frequent trips to neighboring towns in Arkansas and Missouri to speak on current educational trends. In this way he keeps abreast of the practical high school problems.

He is well acquainted with progressive methods of education all over the United States. He is well qualified to offer excellent advice to those who are planning to enter the teaching profession or any other field of activity.

REGISTRAR ELDRIDGE

Registrar H. E. Eldridge has been granted a year's leave of absence as he was called to serve in the National Guard in which he holds the rank of Major. His position has been capably filled by Miss Leton Adams.

Many and varied were the tasks "Cap" was called on to handle. Besides keeping and individual permanent record of each student in the College, he served as head of the NYA, and he was consulting engineer of the College

Next year he expects to be back at his old job. He will be sincerely welcomed by every student and faculty member.

DEAN OF MEN, HOLLARD

H. W. Hollard, as Dean of Men, has the important task of supervision of the men of the College in their extra-curricular activities. In this way he helps them in making any effective adjustment in their college life.

Mr. Hollard is the ideal person for this position. Known as the most popular man on the campus, he always has time to discuss any problem which is brought to him.

Acting also as head of the chapel program, he arranges each week for some sort of entertainment. He teaches in the Agriculture department and has charge of the dairy.

DEAN OF WOMEN, MRS. BROWN

Mrs. Mary Rogers Browns is probably unique among Deans of Women in American colleges because she had as her predecessors her mother and her sister. She has carried on in the same high way in which they filled the position and there is no doubt as to her success on the job.

Mrs. Brown helps each woman student to prepare herself for later life by helping them to gain knowledge and to develop personal integrity. She is always ready to discuss any problem which is brought to her.

FOUR YEARS OF COLLEGE BRING MANY MEMORIES

Seniors Look Back At Their Early Days In Arkansas State and Reminisce

Reminiscences . . . yes. As we look back upon our four years in Arkansas State College we realize the mistakes we've made and the things we might have done. But that is not all we can see; think of those good times our class has shared together, and the humorous incidents, the all-important tragedies that seem so definite and disrupting—but were lived through somehow.

We entered school a little frightened, but were soon cured by the freshman mixers and parties. Dr. D. F. Showalter was our sponsor, and David Burford, our advisor. Early in the spring of 1938 we elected Horace Ball our president.

Our sophomore year was one of readjustment to our college life. Like all others we found that some things we did our freshman year wouldn't work again. Some of us took active interest in extracurricula activities, others became "grinds;" all of us found that our college environment had changed—our paths changing to suit our wants. That year we elected Homer Branan, president; Eli Abbott, vice-president; and Marian Smith, secretary. Mrs. Nannie A. Rogers was our sponsor.

In school last year we furnished members for practically every organization on the campus and had representatives on all of the major athletic teams. We followed tradition by entertaining the seniors with the Junior-Senior Prom. Homer Branan was re-elected president with Phoebe Reasons and William Cureton our Student Life Representatives; Dr. W. W. Nedrow was our sponsor.

With Henry Metzler, our president, and Dr. Ashley Robey, our sponsor, leading us this past year, we have formed a powerful, though small, group. Most of us seniors have been active on the campus, and many of us have done credibly in our studies.

JUNIORS TAKE AN ACTIVE PART IN CAMPUS AFFAIRS

Class of '42' Sponsor Of First Founder's Day To Celebrate State's Birthday

By looking through the College annuals and newspaper files of last year and the year before, one would find that since the entrance of the class of '42, into Arkansas State College, it has played a major part in all of the activities about the campus. There were two hundred and thirty students in the class when it began to function as a body. Dr. Homer C. Huitt was selected as the sponsor.

Toward the end of the second semester, after everyone knew each other pretty well, class officers were elected to serve out the remainder of the year. Homer McEwen was selected as the president.

During the year three R. O. T. C. sponsors, two of the campus beauties, the Z. T. Z. Dream Girl of 1938-39, and a maid for Homecoming Day were selected from this class.

Back again, as sophomores, the class was somewhat smaller than it had been the previous year, but it was one that was well prepared to put to use the things that it had learned the year before. Mrs. Nannie Rogers acted as sponsor for the year. Louie Collier had been selected as president, but due to illness he had to drop from school during the first semester; and George Booker took over his duties and completed them very well.

The annual Dog Patch Dance was continued by the class. This group attempted and successfully completed the first Founder's Day celebration. This celebration was in honor of the people who founded Arkansas State College, and it was held on the birthday of the school.

Now, as juniors, the class is under the leadership of Louie Rodgers as president with George Booker, vice-president; Sarah June Daugherty, secretary; Helen Sturdivant, treasurer; and Ruth McBride, reporter. The class lost several members, as did other classes, when the National Guard was inducted into the regular army in January. The first annual Junior Jump was given during the first semester, and the class sponsored the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

CLASS OF 1943 CONTINUES ALL OLD TRADITIONS

Hartsock Leads Class For Second Year As President. Shover Is Sponsor

This year's Sophomore Class began its college career last year, as freshmen, with a total of two hundred and fifty-one members. Edmond P. Hartsock was selected president during the early part of the second semester with Paul Allbright, senior, as assistant sponsor.

Under the able leadership of the Faculty Sponsor, Dr. H. C. Huitt, the class took part in many of the major affairs on the campus. Three of the girls served as R. O. T. C. sponsors and five of the members served on the Annual Staff of last year.

Edmond Hartsock filled the office of president so well during that first year, that he was re-elected to that office for this year. He has been an able leader, and a lot has been accomplished under his guidance. Mrs. Nannie A. Rogers was appointed as Faculty Sponsor for this year, but due to illness, her position was left vacant. Dr. W. G. Shover is now occupying that office.

The Sophomores have been outstanding on the campus by their participation in both social and scholastic events. Picnics, parties, and other entertainments have constituted a very pleasant year for all members of the group. Perhaps the most entertaining event was the "Dogpatch Dance" which was carried out in regular style and customs of "Daisy Mae, Lil Abner" comic strip. Prizes were awarded to Billy Richardson, "Marryin' Sam;" Ray Clardy, "Lil Abner;" Marilyn McHaney, "Sadie Hawkins;" and Rosemary Cooper, "Daisy Mae."

The second annual Founders' Day Program was carried out, with some of the first promoters of the founding of Arkansas State College for guest speakers.

Proud of the honors and achievements it has gained this year, the class members hope to come back next year stronger and better than they have been in the past.

FRESHMEN ARE OUTSTANDING IN ALL ACTIVITIES

New Class Discards Green Caps, Elects Wier President, and Gives Party

Discarding the traditional green caps for the spectacular red ones, the class of '44 entered Arkansas State College in a blaze of glory. No sooner had they found where orientation was being held than "Freshman Hell Week" began. Needless to say, this was most enjoyable to the upperclassmen who were tough enough to get any results.

By some lucky trick of fate, the freshman class functioned famously without leadership for the first semester and six weeks of the second. However, on March 5, 1941, the freshmen elected the following officers; President, Buddy Weir, Jonesboro; Vice-President, Nona Mae Morgan, Faragould; Secretary, Mildred Pitts, Jonesboro; Treasurer, Wiley Bailey, West Helena;

Reporter, Hettie Sue Rea, Jonesboro. Dr. Huitt is the freshman sponsor.

The first and last freshman function was the annual freshman picnic, which was held at the College Gravel Pit and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Throughout the school year numerous freshmen have been very outstanding in scholastic and extra-curricular activities. The posting of the eligibility lists proved their scholastic achievements, and vacancies left in the different organizations from the preceding year were rapidly filled.

"A" CLUB

Only those men who have earned letters in major varsity sports are eligible for membership in the "A" Club. These boys seek at all times to enliven and further athletic interest on the campus.

Each year this organization sponsors the annual Homecoming Queen. This year the "A" Club gave an award to the organization that had the best exhibit advertising the Homecoming football game.

Several socials are given by the group during the year—such as a dance, a bingo party, and a picnic.

AGRICULTURE CLUB

The Agriculture Club is the oldest organization on the campus. Formed in 1917 under the name of "Hoof and Horn," the "Ag Club" has functioned regularly to this date.

It brings together in social meetings those men interested in all phases of agriculture. Its program consists of practical and scientific talks.

Every year the "Ag" members sponsor a Christmas dance and a formal banquet. Its initial social gathering is the fall picnic.

ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

The study program of the A. C. E. for the school year 1940-41 is "The Development of the Whole Child." A mothers club of the patrons of the primary department of the Training School meets with this group. By using the primary department of the Training School as their laboratory, the organization has been able to carry out many new ideas. There have been several social functions that contributed materially to the lives of those who participated. All who are interested in the study of the development of the lives of young children enjoy reading the club's literature and working with it in their plans.

ARKANSAS STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

This society, known as the Arkansas State College Historical Society, and in the third year of its existence is of interest to all students. Its purpose is to learn the history of various towns and communities from which the students of this College come. It is of particular interest to history students, however, and even to some who are not in school. The club collects documents,, other data, and historical relics which may help to determine the history of this section. This collection is housed in a museum. The cases were a gift of the class of '38.

Parties and picnics are held at various times during the year. One banquet is sponsored by this group.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

In January of this year, the Wesley Foundation was organized through a Campus-Church Relations Committee set up by the three local Methodist Churches. Its work has just begun on the campus.

The Wesley Foundation is a student movement embracing all Methodist students. It is the Methodist Church at work in the college community, seeking to provide for the spiritual, moral and social needs of students.

The Methodist Student Council for this group directs the religious activities of all Methodist students. This council meets once a week.

The Wesley Foundation Council has taken an active part in setting up the Student Religious Activities Council, made up of representatives from all the organized religious groups, through which the first Religious Emphasis Week on the campus was made possible.

An all Methodist party was sponsored by the group this spring. A delegation was sent to the State Methodist Student Conference at Conway.

Women's Athletic Association was organized in 1935. The initial group consisted of fifty girls, with Mildred Liddell as president. Mrs. James Mason was the sponsor and she is still serving in that capacity. The aim of the Women's Athletic Association is to promote interest and competition in intramural sports among the women students of the College.

A girl who earns 500 points is awarded an intramural letter. A special award is given to girls who earn letters four years. This year such awards go to Patty Sanders and Juanita Caldwell. Each year a trophy is awarded to the member of the club who has received the most points while taking an active part in the intramural program sponsored by the club.

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are among the oldest organizations on the campus. For many years they have served to enrich the social, spiritual, and intellectual experiences of the students.

The organizations sponsor a variety of activities each year. The Y's serve to co-ordinate the other clubs and groups of the campus in the annual White Christmas event. Seventy-five dollars and a large amount of groceries were turned over to the Child Welfare through the White Christmas during this past year. The student mixer and the student-frolic sponsored annually by the Y's serve to get students acquainted.

Each year these organizations bring outstanding speakers to the campus. These speakers are outstanding in their work, and they include such people as Tom Curry, former travelling secretary for the Southwest region of the "Y." Also Fern Babcock and Carroll Moon, regional secretaries, have spoken here.

The new sponsor of the Y. W. C. A. is Miss Sudie Mae Walton, who took the place of Miss Bernice Livengood. Dr. Holger Andersen is still sponsor of the Y. M. C. A.

STATE'S ROTC LOOKS AHEAD TO FIFTH BLUE STAR

Major F. J. Achatz In Command As Corps Works To Keep Its Excellent Rating

Excellence is the goal of the Arkansas State College R. O. T. C. unit, and it has been achieved in every inspection of the corps since 1936 when it was organized.

Major William E. Corkill was the first commander at State, and he was assisted by Capt. John L. Lewis and Capt. Boniface Campbell. Under their direction an excellent corps was formed in a remarkably short time.

The officers served again as head of the corps during the 1937-38 school year. David Burford was appointed as Cadet Colonel to command during drill.

In the spring of 1938 Capt. Campbell was promoted to Major and sent to the Army War College in Washington. Capt. Francis J. Achatz was sent to replace him for 1938-39. Clark Hetherington was Cadet Colonel that year.

The same commanding staff served at State in 1939-40. In the spring of 1940 the first regular four year graduates received their commissions as reserve officers in the Regular Army. Paul Allbright served as Cadet Colonel.

This year both Major Corkill and Capt. Lewis were sent to the Regular Army, and Capt. Achatz was promoted to Major and put in command of the corps. Capt. W. E. Womble and Lt. Gus R. Ridings are his assistants, and Gus Craig is Cadet Colonel.

The corps also has a pistol team which competes with colleges all over the United States. They have a very good record.

Also in service at the College is a detachment of enlisted men. These men keep the equipment, buildings, and records of the organization in good condition.

GUARDSMEN GO TO YEAR'S CAMP

In the middle of January, 1941 when the National Guard was mobilized, approximately forty students from Arkansas State were included in the group.

Nearly all of the first string basketball team and many of the tracksters left for their year of training. The loss will also be felt next year when the football team reports for the season.

The departure not only affected the athletic teams of the College but vacancies were also left in many of the organizations on the campus.

Mid-year elections were made necessary in many groups to fill vacated offices.

Early examinations were given to the group of Guardsmen to allow them to finish their first semester's work. They will thus be able to continue after returning for the second semester next year.

A. S. SUPPORTS CAMPUS SOCIALS

Alpha Sigma Sorority was founded by eight girls on February 25, 1935. Dorothy Lea Lines, of Wynne, served as the first president, with Mrs. Adelaide (Rogers) Gafke as first sponsor. Patty Sanders is now president and Mrs. James H. Mason sponsor. The purpose of this organization is to further the aims of Arkansas State College by fostering social participation for the attainment of culture and by encouraging educational achievements.

In September, Alpha Sigma welcomes all new girls with a tea; and during commencement week, a tea is given complimenting the senior girls. Each spring the pledges of Alpha Sigma are introduced at a formal dance. Alpha Sigma chooses, every year, a sponsor from each fraternity on the campus. This year the following were chosen: Jimmy Crockett, Kappa Sigma Nu; Warren Thornton, Zeta Tau Zeta; and Louie N. Rogers, Delta Omega Sigma.

A medal is presented annually to the outstanding student of the Music Department on Honor's Day by Alpha Sigma, and at the same time a collection of books is presented to the library.

Patrons and patronesses of Alpha Sigma are: Mr. J. H. Mason; Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Pasmore; Mrs. V. C. Kays; Major and Mrs. F. J. Achatz; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McMeans; Mrs. D. T. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. L. NEDROW IS NEW GUIDE FOR A. T. Z.

Alpha Tau Zeta sorority was recognized on the Arkansas State College campus when it received its charter March 3, 1937. Betty S. Fortenberry served as its first president with Miss Eleanor Heuver as the first sponsor.

Janice King who is now presiding and Mrs. Warren W. Nedrow as sponsor with the assistance of the faithful members have guided Alpha Tau Zeta through its fourth year of existence.

The Sorority has many various functions each year. At the beginning of the college year the members entertain with a tea for the new dormitory girls and faculty members. A dance in the fall starts the social season for this organization. The anniversary is celebrated each spring with a dinner and formal dance.

Mary E. White, 1939-40 president, was selected by the faculty as the most outstanding senior girl and was granted the Wilson Award for that year.

Warren Thornton was chosen as the most ideal campus boy for 1940-41 and was presented at the anniversary dance.

During the summer the annual convention is held in Memphis. The alumni and members meet here for a general good time and to make plans for the next school year.

The patrons of the sorority, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barrett, Mr. Roy Sigler, Mr. Clyde Knight, Dr. W. W. Nedrow, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Shover, Lt. G. R. Ridings, Mr. H. W. Hollard, and Mrs. H. W. Hollard, chartered member, are special guests of the members at the anniversary dance and dinner.

Delta Beta Chi Sorority was founded on Feb. 11, 1935, the first sorority on the campus at Arkansas State College. Mary Elizabeth (Hollan) Smith was the first president and Miss Martha Lou Lassiter, first sponsor.

The purpose of Delta Beta Chi is to encourage closer friendship, promote social and cultural development, and to make Arkansas State College a greater institution. Each year the Sorority sponsors a no-date dance at the beginning of the school year, and an anniversary dance in February. The organization also sponsors numerous parties during the year. A convention for active and alumnae members is held each summer. An annual award is given to the organization presenting the best chapel program of the year.

Patrons of Delta Beta Chi are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hickey, Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Crosno, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Parker, Miss Emma Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Guy French, Mrs. E. L. Whitsitt, Miss Olive E. D. O. S. FOUNDED IN WINTER OF '35

With five men as a nucleus, Delta Omega Sigma, Arkansas State's Pioneer Fraternity was founded Jan. 25, 1935. It came as a result of an informal meeting held late in 1934, in one of the guest rooms of Danner Hall that had been turned over to one of the original five while he recovered from an appendectomy.

These first five men knew that in order to have a successful fraternity, they would have to take more men into the group; so they at once went to work to add more members to the organization. With the fraternity thus enlarged, they began work in earnest to gain recognition on the campus.

Charles Light, one of the new members to the organization, drew up the constitution. Light's knowledge in this field proved indispensable, and the constitution that he drew up and presented to President V. C. Kays and the Board of Trustees, still governs the Fraternity.

Under the leadership of capable presidents—Charles Light, Paul Chambers, Eddie Heath, Lloyd Hancock, James Ramsey, and Billy Cureton, with C. E. McMeans as sponsor—the Fraternity has done its part in the promotion of activities for better scholarship and social surroundings on the campus.

For the past five years, Delta Omega Sigma has sponsored an annual Homecoming Dance. This Fraternity sponsored its first Spring Formal on April 27, 1935, and has continued to do so ever since, the dance being given on Easter Eve of each year.

For the past three years, the Fraternity has set aside a Scholastic Fund, to be increased each year, through which some student may find a means of borrowing sufficient funds to aid him in gaining his education.

Kappa Sigma Nu fraternity was organized in 1935. Leland McCandless was first president of the organization. Dr. Ashley Robey was selected as sponsor and has served in that capacity since then. The active chapter and the alumni chapter now have a total membership of one hundred and ten.

Kappa Sigma Nu presidents since McCandless include

James Brides, Walnut Ridge; Winford Wyatt, Jonesboro; Orville Kellett, Williford; G. W. Clements, Thomasville, Missouri; and Caleb Davis, Braggadocio, Missouri.

Each year the fraternity presents a formal Christmas Ball, an alumni New Year's Eve Banquet, and a summer convention. Last year the group met in Jonesboro for the convention.

This year for the first time Kappa Sigma Nu sponsored a Coronation Ball which is to be made an annual affair.

At this dance the queen and king of the campus are announced over the local broadcasting station. Four representatives are chosen from the independent groups and from each social organization on the campus. Their pictures are sent to judges, and the decisions are announced on the night of the Ball. This year the campus queen and king, Dorothy Gene Porter and Clifford Rorex, were chosen by Earl Carroll and Hedy Lamarr respectively.

ZETA TAU ZETA STARTED IN 1937

The history of Zeta Tau Zeta fraternity begins in 1937 when the organization was granted a charter by the College authorities. Clarence Adams of Jonesboro was made president that year, and since that time he has been succeeded in chronological order by James DeShazo of Viola, Charles Potter of Pine Bluff, Kelly Thomson of Cotter, and Pete Wallace of Dell.

Highlighting the year's social activities are the anniversary ball in January and the annual spring banquet and dance. Other varied social activities are sponsored by the organization during the year.

Each year the fraternity selects a "Dream Girl" who is formally introduced at the anniversary dance and serves as official hostess to the fraternity's social functions. In 1939 Miss Billie Masner of Monette received this honor. The following year Miss Dorothy Wilcox of Jonesboro was selected to succeed Miss Masner, and she, in turn, was succeeded by Miss Lou Anna Banks of Delta, Colorado.

Zeta Tau Zeta has as its mission the promotion of better relationship between the sororities and fraternities on the campus.

Each year, on Honor's Day, the fraternity makes awards to the most outstanding senior journalist and senior athlete. Journalism awards have been bestowed upon Clarence Adams, J. L. Swindle, and Angus Rutledge. The organization has chosen Orville Kellet, Ivan Busby, and Joe Wods the most outstanding athletes.

Guy French serves as sponsor to the fraternity, assisted by Coach Bill Adams, alumni member, and Dr. George Brock and Dr. Homer Huitt, honorary members.

P. G. M. SPONSORS SOCIAL IDEALISM

Beta Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu, national honor social science fraternity, has been in existence since 1934. It was formed for the purpose of impressing young people with social idealism, to train them in social thought, and to encourage them to think straightly on all social questions. Its motto "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free," is an epigram that is well known to everybody, and one to which the organization tries to live up to at all times.

The organization has a program for the society as a whole as well as for the local group. Beta Chapter has a monthly meeting which is pleasantly divided between the consideration of current problems and sociability. It makes the Woodruff Award yearly to the Junior College student who does the most outstanding work in the Social Science field. It participates in the yearly trip to the Juvenile Court of Memphis and aids the social consciousness of the campus life.

LOCAL COMPANY CHARTERED 1938

M Company of the 7th Regiment, Arkansas State's chapter of the National Society of Scabbard and Blade, is an outgrowth of an Officer's Club, that was formed at the College. It came as a result of the untiring efforts of a group of cadet officers who wished to make their club a part of a national organization.

Under the guidance of Major Wm. E. Corkill, and led especially by Cadets Grover Ashley, and Francis Raymond, the "Officer's Club" presented their credentials to the Installation Board of Scabbard and Blade at its annual Summer Convention held at Los Angeles in 1938.

The Convention members passed unanimously on the petition of the local group for a charter, and Arkansas State's "Officer's Club" was accepted to become affiliated with Scabbard and Blade. In the fall of 1938, Major T. S. Crockett came to the campus and officially installed the unit as M Company of the Seventh Regiment. Clark Hetherington was elected as the organization's first Captain. Since that time James Ramsey and Gus Craig have served in that capacity.

The first annual Scabbard and Blade Formal was given in the spring of 1939 with only officers and non-commissioned officers of the corps, and their dates, invited. At this dance, right after the Grand March, the first pledges to the Company were announced. Since that time the same custom has been the method of announcing the second semester pledges.

Each year the Company gives a series of smokers and dinner dances. This year it sponsored a traveling Basketball team, the major object of which was to bring a clearer knowledge of Military affairs to the people in the different localities in Northeastern Arkansas and Southeastern Missouri.

STATE'S VARSITY TEAMS LOSE BUT PLAY GOOD BALL

Inexperience Causes Defeats When Army And Injuries Take Veterans

Coach Bill Adams is to be congratulated upon his ability as a real worker and his development of a hard playing football team. To begin with, he lost the majority of his first string men via graduation and had to build his team this year from the few remaining veterans and a group of newcomers.

Due to a great number of injuries and a few bad breaks, the team this year did not make as impressive a record, on the scoreboard, as did last year's team. Their playing, however, was as fine as could have been possibly expected.

The number of games lost this year makes a dwarfism of our victories, but, nevertheless, we did have a hard playing and fair fighting team throughout the season.

FOOTBALL QUEEN AND MAIDS

This year the Indians elected two Homecoming Queens: Bonnie V. Lawhon, a sophomore from Pocahontas, and Helen Sturdivant, a junior from McCrory. The maids of honor were Patty Lou Sanders, a senior; Babe Jackson, a sophomore; Jean Downes, a freshman; and Mary Belle Overstreet, a freshman.

The Queens, and their court, were recognized officially by Captain Henry Metzler just before the game with Austin Peay Normal College, when they were presented to the spectators as the rulers of the team for the season.

That night, at the annual Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Delta Omega Sigma fraternity, the Queens reigned once more—and honored the Indians with their congratulations on a well-earned 13-0 victory over "The Governors."

CHEERLEADERS

This group is responsible for the student enthusiasm shown at all of State's athletic events. Their job is to teach and lead the students in their yells and cheers for the teams of State College.

Bernard "Cracker" Graham, a returning veteran, was chosen as Head Cheerleader. Other members of the squad were Ed Worsley, a former member; Pat Lawhon, a former member; and Phe Marie Koonce and Carol Fakes, both freshmen and new to the team.

BASKETBALL

Coach Wendell Davis had a rather hard time of it with his basketball team. Due to injuries, all his first string men were not on the floor all the time they were here, and then the National Guard took away part of his squad and left only a few men for him to work with for the duration of a hard season.

Captain Henry Metzler was one of the steady ball players that Coach Davis had left after the National Guard boys left, and "Metz" played the same regular, steady, and fair fighting game he has played for State in the past years. With the coaching ability of Davis, the experience of a couple of the veterans, and the good spirit and cooperation of the remainder of the squad, we had a ball team that was surprisingly good considering the circumstances and the disadvantages against which we had to work.
